

WINTERLITE DELUXE FA-SMD

Full length tapered 4 season sleeping mat

A comfortable good nights sleep is crucial to avoiding muscle soreness from the rigours of the days hunt, and on extended trips quality sleep will keep you focused and your energy levels at their highest. Moroka.30's Winterlite range of sleeping mats provide a great value, comfortable, compact & lightweight option for the hunter. All mats have a true 4 season rating and feature 4.0cm thickness to provide maximum warmth and comfort. The textured non-slip surface will keep you and your bag where you should be, and the three sizes cover all options for the weight conscious hunter. Available in 3/4 length, full length and our exclusive custom designed Deluxe tapered mat.

The Winterlite Deluxe is a revolutionary design exclusive to Moroka.30. This is ultimate lightweight sleeping mat for the weight conscious hunter hiker, providing maximum warmth and comfort without the extra added bulk and weight of a full length mat. The Winterlite Deluxe features 4.0cm thickness under the torso and hips, tapering to 1cm thickness under the feet and legs to save on weight and bulk and provide important insulation from the cold.
